

Master's Degree Studies for International Students

 23-11-2024

Master's Degree Studies for International Students

Our university offers high-quality master's degree programs for international students. The teaching process is organized in accordance with standards, with special emphasis on scientific research and professional development opportunities.

Admission Process

Admission of international students is carried out through the portal.edu.az platform.

You can review the required documents here.

Admission Period:

The admission process is held once a year:

July - September

Submission of Documents:

After arriving in the country, students must submit the following documents to the Department of International Education Programs:

- Student visa (60-90 days).
- Temporary/permanent residence permit issued by the State Migration Service of the Republic of Azerbaijan.
- Legalized (or apostilled) document confirming previous education.
- Foreign passport.
- Medical certificate on health status (AIDS, Hepatitis B and C).

Advantages of Master's Studies:

- Our master's programs enable students to acquire in-depth knowledge and practical skills in their fields of specialization.
- Students can conduct research in their fields and achieve scientific accomplishments.
- Students from various countries come together at our university, creating a learning environment with a global perspective.
- Master's students can expand their professional networks by connecting with academic staff, researchers, and other students.

Duration of Study and Specialties

Duration of master's studies: 2 years

For more detailed information about specialties and programs, please refer here.

Why Choose Our University?

- The teaching process is carried out based on the latest technologies and methodologies.
- Experienced and highly qualified instructors deliver the teaching process.
- Adaptation programs and social events are organized for international students.
- Master's students are provided with scientific supervision and individual advisory services.

For more detailed information, please contact instudent@bsu-uni.edu.az.

Build your future with master's studies at our university!

Teaching, Science and Innovation
Academic Department

Higher Education Center
First Vice-President of Azerbaijan
mehriban-aliyeva.az

President of Azerbaijan
president.az